Aon Advice appoints new General Manager

SYDNEY, 25 August 2009:

Aon Advice has announced the appointment of Jayson Walker as General Manager of Advice for Aon Wealth Management Limited and Aon Financial Planning & Protection Limited.

He takes on this newly created role after acting as a Regional Manager of Aon's adviser network during the last 2 years.

Pierre Kraft, Managing Director of both Aon companies said: "The change in the General Manager role was created to provide clarity and focus in relation to advice distribution. This ensures the continued provision of leading advice for our clients well into the future."

As General Manager Jayson will be responsible for all aspects of advice delivery and will manage the Aon network of over 200 advisers.

With a background in practice management and adviser recruitment Jayson will be tasked with implementing Aon's advice channel strategy with a focus on generating growth and further strengthening and building the Aon team.

Walker commented: "I am excited to be continuing my work with the Aon team. I look forward to driving quality advice outcomes for our end clients and developing services to help our advisers demonstrate client value."
