Aon appoints Andrew Plympton to Board of Advice

Sydney, 25 January, 2011 – Leading risk management and consulting firm Aon Australia has appointed Andrew Plympton to the company's Board of Advice.

Mr Plympton will join a number of senior business leaders on the advisory board, who come from a variety of industry sectors to assist in the strategic growth of the business.

In the public company sector, Andrew's leadership skills are greatly respected in his positions as chairman of Beyond Sportswear International Ltd, Intermoco Ltd, AdEffective Limited, Entellect Solutions Ltd and the New Zealand company Energy Mad Ltd. He is also a non executive director of Newsat Ltd.

Over the last twenty years Mr Plympton has been CEO and chairman of two global insurance broking firms' Asia Pacific operations. He also served as chairman of a specialist aviation underwriting company as well as a high profile captive insurance operation.

Mr Plympton's passion for sport has also awarded him well-respected roles in many leading sporting bodies. He is the longest serving president of Yachting Australia Inc, an executive member of the Australian Olympic Committee and director of the Australian Olympic Foundation. Born and educated in Melbourne, his love of Aussie Rules also saw him serve as chairman of St Kilda Football Club for eight years.
