Aon wins the Coca-Cola Amatil Financial Services Supplier of the Year Award for 2011

Recognised for outstanding performance in financial services sector

Sydney, 29 August, 2011 –Aon Australia has been awarded Coca-Cola Amatil's Supplier of the Year Award in the financial services category for 2011.

This was the second annual Supplier of the Year Awards held by Coca-Cola Amatil, with more than 60 suppliers nominated for the nine awards.

Felix Riedl, Manager Risk and Insurance, Coca-Cola Amatil said "Aon stands out from the rest of its peers in the industry because of its high service level. Aon has assisted Coca-Cola Amatil in all facets of our business and the team are worthy winners of our Supplier of the Year Awards for financial services."

Commenting on the win Jason Disborough, Chief Commercial Officer for Aon Risk Solutions said "We are thrilled Aon is being recognised for the high caliber of service we give to clients and for our expertise in insurance and risk management. This award is also important recognition of the services we provide to the Australian food and beverage industry.

Aon draws from an international network of specialists which provides our clients with the ideal combination of local and global risk advisory and insurance broking experience. This forms the foundation of the Aon Client Promise, a code of service that all employees aim to meet which ensures every client gets the best customised risk advice and brokerage services in the industry," said Mr Disborough.

Aon Australia was also recognised among Australia's most progressive organisations in July, winning the 2011 Australian Business Award for Innovation. The award recognises Aon's innovation for the development of Aon WorldAware, a solution that provides organisations with a safe travel program for business travellers.
